

Tailored pants, shorts, skirts or skorts are all acceptable. The minimum length for shorts, skirts or skorts is mid-thigh (mid-way between hip bone and knee).

Men's "Polo-style" golf shirts must be tucked in. Button-down shirts may be worn untucked provided they are evenly finished around the hem and designed to be worn untucked.

Women's leggings/tights are appropriate, providing they are worn in conjunction with a dress, skirt, or skorts. This includes yoga-style tights.

Women may wear a sleeveless shirt if it has a collar. Men's shirts must have a collar.

Appropriate golf footwear must be worn on the course.

Logos should be discreet and golf-related.

Hats must be worn facing forward.

Juniors and children may wear non-golf-specific clothing while on the practice areas or during Junior lessons, provided they are dressed in a way that is appropriate. They are required to follow the dress code if they are playing golf on the course.

Members are responsible for their guests' dress.

Blue jeans, garments with exterior cargo pockets if they are bulging or gusseted, tennis, track, gym, or yoga styled pants or athletic shorts, halter tops, tank tops (no midriff showing) are not permitted.

Any tattered, over-worn or faded clothing is also considered inappropriate.

Sandals, flip-flops or bare feet are not permitted.

Appropriate golf, sports, casual or semi-formal attire are all acceptable in the Clubhouse.

Men's shirts are to be tucked in at the waist, unless designed to be worn untucked.

Logos must be discreet and golf-related.

Jeans are appropriate in the Clubhouse, but they cannot be frayed, dirty or ripped. Dress jeans may be worn throughout the Clubhouse, unless a different dress code is specified for a special event.

No headwear is permitted on the upper floor of the Clubhouse or in the serviced areas, with the exception of formal men's and women's hats.

Athletic wear is acceptable in the locker rooms while participating in athletic events, or in the casual dining areas during breakfast hours.

Leather flip-flops are acceptable throughout the Clubhouse. Rubber flip-flops are unacceptable unless designed to be a dress sandal.

As a Member of VGC, it is your responsibility to know the dress code and to ensure that you and your guests are dressed appropriately at the Club. The intent of our dress code is to respect the history and tradition of the game of golf while navigating the current trends in golf fashion.

Thank you for taking the time to be up-to-date with the current dress code in the Clubhouse and on the course.
